

A HERO'S WELCOME

THE STORY OF OUR HEROES AND THE TOWN THAT STOOD UP TO HONOR THEM

About the Movie

A HERO'S WELCOME is about our nation's heroes, and a small town that stood up to remember them. Follow the journey of Lt. John Finn, the nation's oldest living Medal of Honor Recipient who turns 100 years old this year and received the first Medal of Honor from World War II for his duty at Pearl Harbor. The film chronicles the stories of the tiny town of Gainesville, TX, the only Medal of Honor Host City Program in America, as they go out of their way to welcome our nation's heroes, the country's surviving Medal of Honor Recipients. The film has exclusive interviews with these men and serves as a story of hope, honor, and remembrance.
